ADA, OKLAHOMA, THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 22, 1908

NUMBER 175

HASKELL AT ADA

Pontotoc county will extend a reception to the first live governor of an American commonwealth ever visiting her borders next Tuesday afternoon. And it is to be our own governor.

Charlie Haskell, under the direction of Chairman Joe Thompson, will arrive in Ada next Tuesday afternoon, the 27th inst., and will address the people of Pontotoc county from some vantage point selected by the local county committee.

In view of the fact that the chief executive of our state will be our guest, and since all citizens of good understanding and friendly to the best government love him, for the enemies he has made on account of his political activities, all, regardless of party affiliation, should compliment the occasion next Tuesday with their presence.

It is suggested that all the precinct committeemen throughout the county immediately consult with the leading democratic club members of his precinct in the undertaking to arrange for the attendance of every club member.

Ada's democracy will be out with the big brass band and the glad hand for everybody. It is proposed by the committee to erect a suitable platform at an appropriate point where there will be arranged seats for five thousand actual visitors who have come to hear the governor's speech.

It is proposed to request all public spirited citizens, and especially those citizens who will receive some pecuniary benefit on account of the presence of several thousand visitors on next Tuesday, to subscribe to a fund sufficient to afford proper entertainment and reception to the governor and his party. The cost of the governor's special train through this county, which is our duty to pay, the general expense of the reception, decorations, constructing platform, placing ample seating accommodations, band, badges, carriages, etc., will cost some money. Let the bus and carriage people, the livery people, the restaurants, the hotels, the hamburger peddlers and general merchants, all of whom will reap financial benefit an account of the coming of thousands of people, liberally subscribe to a fund for the proper support of the governor's reception and entertainment whilst within our portals.

Committees Are Appointed.

In pursuance to the call of Chairman W. H. Ebey, there were an assembly of democrats at the court house for the purpose of initiating steps for the proper reception of Governor Haskell on the occasion of his visit to Ada next Tuesday afternoon.

Chairman Ebey made the following committee appointments:

On Finance.

R. M. Roddie, W. H. Braley.

Committee on Arrangements.

Otis B. Weaver, Sam McClure, Robt. Wimbish.

Committee on Reception.

W. H. Ebey, Geo. Thompson, Sam McClure, Byron Norrell, E. S. Ratliff, Otis B. Weaver, R. M. Roddie, Frank Huddleston, J. W. Hays, Tom Hope, W. L. Reed, J. W. Bolen, T. D. McKeown, Robt. Wimbish, Geo. Harrison, W. C. Duncan, C. O. Barton, W. T. Cox, E. H. Lucas, M. L. Walsh, R. W. Simpson, W. H. Braley, J. F. Jackson, S. S. McDonald, R. E. Haynes, W. G. Broadfoot, John Rinard, C. W. Floyd, C. H. ELUDES MURDERERS

JUDGE R. Z. TAYLOR TELLS OF
THRILLING ADVENTURE WITH
TENNESSEE NIGHT RIDERS.

GREAT DASH FOR LIBERTY

While Assassins Were Killing Companion Taylor Breaks Away From Guard and Swims to Safety.

Tiptonville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—Unharméd save for numerous scratches received in a thirty-hour trip through unfamiliar woods and the fatigue incident to the trip without food and the mental strain, Judge R. Zach Taylor reached here this morning after a miraculous escape from a band of masked men at Reelfoot Lake, who murdered his partner, Capt. Quinton Rankin.

Judge Taylor's escape is due to a daring dash for liberty while his captors were shooting into the body of Capt. Rankin. At a moment when he thought the guns were empty Col. Taylor broke for freedom. Dashing a few yards to the bank of a shallow inlet of Reelfoot Lake, he plunged in. A fusillade of bullets followed the fugitive, whose figure was dimly discernible.

Hundreds of Shots Fired.

Wading and swimming the aged attorney pushed forward. Near the bank opposite the firing night riders Judge Taylor concealed himself behind a log. Hundreds of shots were fired into and around the log by the night riders, but not one penetrated far enough to injure Col. Taylor.

Satisfied that their victim had met death, the night riders did not attempt to cross the slough.

Col. Taylor lay behind the log for ten minutes or more and then crept into the underbrush and concealed himself until daylight, when he plunged into the woods.

Avoiding paths which might lead to some unfriendly clearing, Col. Taylor pushed his way slowly through the dense woods, stopping only to take a few minutes' rest. When night came Col. Taylor, still afraid to approach a house, made his couch on a bed of leaves and slept until early morning.

Early today Col. Taylor received shelter at a farm house, where his wounds caused by contract with the underbrush, were dressed. After securing nourishment and dry clothing, he came to Tiptonville and related his experience with and escape from the band of men as follows:

Relates His Experiences.

"Capt. Rankin and I went to Reelfoot Lake," he said "to look after some leases of land which we had about there. We drove over from Union City Monday afternoon and secured a room at the Ward Hotel Monday night.

"Some time during the night we were aroused by some one knocking at our door, and on opening the door a mob of masked men were found standing in the hall. We were ordered to dress, and as the leader of the mob said he wanted to talk to us, we put on our clothes and accompanied the men to the banks of the lake, some distance from the hotel.

"The leader of the mob talked with us, telling us we were associating too much with Judge Harris and were taking entirely too much interest in the lake. He said that the course of Harris and the West Tennessee Land Company in prohibiting free fishing was causing the starvation of women and children, and that something had to be done.

Killing of Capt. Rankin.

"I never dreamed that the mob intended us any harm, but just then they threw a rope around Capt. Rankin's neck and swung him to a limb. He protested and said, 'Gentlemen, don't kill me,' and the reply of the mob was a volley of fifty shots.

"This was the first evidence of any intention to harm us, and when the firing began, I jumped into a bayou and made for a sunken log. Behind this I hid, and the mob fired several shots into the log. They evidently believed I was dead, for I heard one of them say, 'His dead and let him go,' and with that they went away.

"I remained behind the log for possibly ten minutes and then hid in the underbrush until daylight. At daylight I struck out and walked until night, stopping once in a while to rest. I slept all night in the woods and this morning came to Slough Landing, where Luther Rankin, a foreman for Judge Harris, gave me shelter and telephoned of my safety to Tiptonville.

Would Not Recognize Men.

"I would not be able to recognize any of the party which killed Capt. Rankin. I am sure I never saw any of them before, and they would have been safe from detection by me even if they had not worn masks.

"I am very tired and scratched somewhat by bushes, but now have on a dry suit of clothes and feel much better. I did not even get a drop of water or a bite of food from the time I went to bed Monday night until this morning.

"I thank God for saving me in this emergency."

Sorosis.

On last Friday, Sorosis club had a pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Perkins in Capital Hill addition.

The lesson for the day, Act 1, "Taming of the Shrew," with papers and discussions, made an afternoon of unusual interest.

The club members decided to change the day of meeting from Friday to Saturday.

"Delicious cakes and hot chocolate were served and while enjoying them an additional treat was given us by Mrs. Perkins reading several beautiful selections.

The next meeting will be Saturday, Oct. 31st. Hostess, Mrs. Sledge.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label. Very good! Hereafter for every reason—mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW.

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Ada Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that backache pains come from sick kidneys, 'twould save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Ada people endorse this:

Mrs. S. M. Kyserm, living at 502 W. Main street, Ada, Okla., says: "Last summer I was suffering a great deal from a dull, heavy aching through my back and hips. I thought it was due to a cold settling on my kidneys, and was inclined to believe that it would soon disappear. The aching became more intense, however, and other symptoms of kidney trouble developed. I then decided to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, and procured a box at G. M. Ramsey's drug store. After taking a few doses the trouble began to disappear. I continued using the remedy faithfully, until my difficulties were entirely removed. I am glad to state I have had no return of kidney complaint since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

At the Hotels.

Evidences of renewed business ac-tivity is evidenced in the almost un-precedented patronage of the Ada hotels lately.

Last night several drummers were lounging around the Harris Hotel lobby, when one approached the hotel mail box and deposited a big fat letter addressed to his St. Louis house, probably filled with substan-tial orders from local merchants, and at the same time remarking: "Well, I got mine." A Jew Knight of the Grip standing near, re-sponded, "Vel, what vas nutings, mine orders from Schnee vunderful, expect to do more beesness in Ada tomorrow." That the conservative merchants of Ada are buying goods indicate that they are also doing business.

Johnie, a Night Rider.

Over in the cotton belt of Texas the other day, a good farmer found a notice posted on his door, "Don't pick any more cotton or we will burn down your house." Signed "Night Riders."

After considerable worry and when it was time to start to the field, Johnie, the little 10 year old son confessed that he had posted the notice. What happened to Johnie is not related.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER TO SENATOR KNOX, FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL, GIVEN OUT.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Bouncing again into the center of the political campaign, President Roosevelt tonight made public a letter in which he tears away the veil which he believes has been put before the eyes of labor. It is one of the most sensational statements which has marked the campaign.

In it Mr. Roosevelt charges that Bryan and Gompers are allies, and challenges the democratic candidate to make his position plain. The republican party would uplift labor, says Mr. Roosevelt, but the remedies proposed by the democrats are but an empty sham. He asserts that Mr. Taft's position toward labor is clearly defined and demands to know where Mr. Bryan stands.

The president holds that Mr. Gompers would have all legal restraint withdrawn from the boycott and would favor enactments legalizing secondary boycotts, blacklists, exempting unions from the consequences of such radical action, yet denying damages to firms whose business is destroyed.

Gompers' Schemes Ridiculed.
Gompers' schemes are ridiculed as policies which will do labor more harm than good. A score of questions are addressed to Mr. Bryan, which, if answered frankly, will throw a flood of light upon labor problems. One striking demand is that Mr. Bryan state whether he shares in Gompers' denunciation of the courts or repudiates it.

The letter is 4,000 words in length and addressed to Senator P. C. Knox, who when at the White House last week, reported to the president that labor was without doubt wandering from the republican standard, but suggested that it might rally to the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt.

Excuse for the Letter.
It states that it is addressed to Senator Knox because as a member of Roosevelt's cabinet he was first to institute an action by which a widow of an engineer obtained recompense for negligence resulting in his death. Its dictation shows that the administration understands the present sensitive condition of labor in general and railroad employees in particular. It will undoubtedly call for an elaborate answer from Mr. Bryan, who has been represented as waiting impatiently for another outburst from the White House which would give him an opportunity to discharge his batteries.

It will shift the focus of public attention from Mr. Taft to Washington for twenty-four hours at least, although by accident or otherwise, it is to be printed on the day Mr. Taft is resting at his home in Cincinnati.

BRYAN USES STRONG WORDS.

A Corporation That Would Threaten Its Men Is Worse Than a Bribe-Giving Ward Heeler. Says the Nebraskan.

Newark, O., Oct. 22.—"I say to you that the little ward heeler who goes around and bribes a man for $5 is a moral character besides the man who attempts to use his power to threaten those who work for him and to buy them by a promise to decrease."

Thoroughly aroused by what he termed a "new menace" through the publication today of a press dispatch saying that the officials of the New York Central lines had summoned their workmen and informed them that if the democrats won the election there would be a 10 per cent reduction in wages, but that if they lost there would be an increase, William J. Bryan in before-breakfast speech to a big crowd poured a volley of criticism into the republican party for its campaign tactics.

He threw into his utterances all the vigor he could muster, and his words were greeted with loud cheers.

The second invasion of the native state of his republican opponent was begun by Mr. Bryan at this place, he having come direct from Louisville in the night. The programme for the day included stops at Mount Vernon, Manfield, Ashland, Creston, Akron, Revena, Warren, Hiles, Youngstown, East Liverpool, Bellaire, Wellsville, Steubenville and Marietta, Ohio, concluding at Williamston, W. V.

DEMOCRACY IS UNITED—WATTERSON

DEAN OF AMERICAN JOURNALISM TELLS OF HIS JOY AT RESULT

REPUBLICAN PARTY MENACE TO ORDERLY GOVERNMENT

In His First Political Address Since 1892 the Editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal Urges his Hearers to Support Bryan, Whose Election He has Twice Opposed

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 21.—In his first political speech since 1892, delivered at a democratic rally in this city, Hon. Henry Watterson declared that whatever usefulness the republican party ever possessed, it has for the time outlived, and that it stands today a menace to equal taxation and economic administration, if not to orderly government and free institutions.

"I truthfully rejoice that I have lived to look upon a united democracy," said Mr. Watterson. "I was born in a democratic campaign during what proved to be a bad year for the democrats, and I attained my majority just in time to see the party go over the precipice of sectionalism, to what seemed its ruin."

"The politicians tell us that there are many issues, but I see only one. If we cannot change our rulers at will—if an organized and defiant minority inside a fortress can withstand the siege of an undisciplined and ill equipped majority on the outside—how shall talk about trusts and tariffs, about rebates and bank deposits, about money and morals, and stocks and bonds profit us?"

"I behold now an almost exact reproduction of the evil conditions of 50 years ago. The republican party grown corrupt and arrogant, is putting forth a tremendous effort to retain the power which it has so much abused. If it succeeds it will never surrender its short of some dire cataclysm, making its exit the signal for, it may be, a civil war. To that end its policies of militarism, favoritism and class distinction, long have been tending, and preparing a new irrepressible conflict between capital and labor. I pray God that this may never come. The way to avert it is by occasional change of party, bringing home to our public officers their subordination to the people."

"If I were a republican I would vote for Bryan. If I were a republican I would let the big chief with his 'big stick' go hang. If I were a republican I would turn my back upon a candidate, no matter how personally acceptable, who represents the vicious methods of ring rule and the steam roller."

"Whatever usefulness the republican party ever possessed, it has for the time outlived. It stands today a menace to equal taxation and economic administration, if not to orderly government and free institutions."

"Its leaders know this, and, knowing it, they began early to prepare for the coming presidential battle; to fortify a field which they thought to make impregnable by the outlay of vast resources and engineering skill."

"They expected to draw us into this bloody ambush and to slaughter us like sheep in the shambles. Disappointed in their plan, what do we now see? We see all disguise of decency thrown aside; the black flag of trustism run up to the masthead; the decks crowded with corporation counsel. The occupant of the white house summons the unspeakable Hearst as his staff witness. The honest rich are invoked to make common cause with the lawless rich. All the perspectives of truth and sobriety and common sense are lost amid the roar of rant and cant of self-glorifying laudation and self-accusing promises of reform, with Aldrich and Cannon, with Payne and Dalzell and Sunny Jim Sherman for their examples."

"Having pitched the campaign on a false note, starting out with a man of straw on a platform of imposture, no argument is too absurd, no illustration is too rank for the men and the interests that do not mean to be dislodged if fraud and force can save them."

"Nicholas Longworth, the president's son-in-law, says he did not say it. But 5,000 listeners say he did. The notes of two stenographers say he did. What boots it whether he did or not? No one who knows what is going on in the national capital, and has been going on for a long time, needs to be told that they are undermining the popular foundations of our democratic government and converting it into an imperial republic, with nothing wanting of monarchism and titular nobility except the nomenclature. The white house is already the palace of a king. The president is already a sovereign in everything except the name. Why should not a member of the court circle blurt it out that Taft is expecting merely to hold the job for Roosevelt, since it was thought premature to run Roosevelt for the immediate succession?

"The campaign was and it is a family affair. If the machine which nominated Taft was so merciless toward the republican allies who dared to resist it, why should it be counted on to spare our free institutions after eight additional years of moneyed accretion and augmented power?"

"Only this can account for the personal interposition of the president, who throws duty and dignity to the winds and gets down like a matador into the bull ring, mud-stained and powder-smirched, swearing like a trooper at all who come within the sound of his voice and the reach of his inflamed fancy."

THE NEGRO VOTE.

Although the republican party has claimed to be the party of progress and prosperity for the past twenty years, has it ever occurred to you that during that entire time, with probably one exception, the republican party has not polled a majority of the votes cast by white men in any national election? Outside of Pennsylvania, Minnesota and California, is there a republican state in the union which that party would carry if the negro vote were eliminated, or cast against the republican party? Take right in our own state here. How many counties in Oklahoma could the republicans hope to carry without the negro vote? With the possible exceptions of Alfalfa and Major there is not a county in Oklahoma where a majority of the white folks vote the republican ticket. Doesn't it look like the party of "progress and prosperity" ought to be able to gather in sufficient white voters to give them a majority without falling back on the negro who is, still faithfully, and no doubt with honest intent, going blindly to the polls and voting the republican ticket because it was the party of Lincoln and Grant, and with the honest, but misguided conviction that by so doing a debt of gratitude is paid?

TAFT VS. LINCOLN.

When the republican candidate for president spoke in Oklahoma City in August of 1907, one of his chief objections to the Oklahoma constitution was that it guaranteed the right of trial by jury in contempt cases to a working man, but denied it to corporations that had violated orders of the corporation commission. "The corporation is brought before these gentlemen who constitute the corporation commission," said Mr. Taft, "and then, after due process of law, by a hearing, this corporation commission, not necessarily of lawyers, is to transmute itself suddenly into a court and impose a fine on that corporation not exceeding five hundred dollars a day during its delinquency. No jury there; so you observe we get an order enforced by a fine against the corporation, but a jury must intervene if that same order of injunction is issued against a laboring man. Gentlemen, that is not fair; it is not a square deal."

Just contrast that language with this clause from the first annual message to congress of President Abraham Lincoln: "Labor is prior to and independent of capital. Capital is only the fruit of labor. Capital could never have existed if labor had not first existed. Labor is the superior of capital and deserves much the more consideration."

REPUBLICAN EDITOR'S VIEWS.

"There seems not to be much work done yet for the national ticket by the republicans," says the Guthrie State Register, a staunch republican sheet. "Mr. Flynn is retrieving his lost ground and Mr. McGuire is working to be re-elected."

The Register has epitomized the Oklahoma situation. In one terse sentence, Editor Golobie has given a full and complete history of the work of the Oklahoma republican state organization in the present campaign. "Mr. Flynn is retrieving his lost ground and Mr. McGuire is working to be re-elected to congress." The Register might have added that Mr. Flynn, in retrieving his lost ground, is being ably seconded by Secretary House, of the republican state committee, and that Mr. McGuire's effort to be re-elected to congress is occupying the exclusive attention of state chairman, Joe Norris.

$5.25 ON EVERY $50.00.

The state tax board has estimated that it will take about nine hundred thousand dollars in direct taxes to pay the expenses of state government for nineteen and a half months. To raise this they have made a levy of one and one-fourth mills. A farm that is assessed at five thousand dollars will pay $5.25 to support the state government for nineteen and one-half months. A piece of business property, a city residence, or a stock of merchandise of the same valuation will pay the same amount. Now, do you think it is going to bankrupt any farmer, merchant or business man in the state to pay $5.25 for the support of the state government for nineteen and one-half months on every five thousand dollars worth of property which he owns?

"In southern states, I am sorry to say, while they have views on every live issue, they are still bound to the democratic party irrevocably by the ghost of a lost issue—the so-called negro domination."—(William H. Taft in his speech at Oklahoma City, Aug. 2, 1907.)

ADA, OKLAHOMA, THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 22, 1903

NUMBER 175

HASKELL AT ADA

Pontotoc county will extend a reception to the first live governor of an American commonwealth ever visiting her borders next Tuesday afternoon. And it is to be our own governor.

Charlie Haskell, under the direction of Chairman Joe Thompson, will arrive in Ada next Tuesday afternoon, the 27th inst., and will address the people of Pontotoc county from some vantage point selected by the local county committee.

In view of the fact that the chief executive of our state will be our guest, and since all citizens of good understanding and friendly to the best government love him, for the enemies he has made on account of his political activities, all regardless of party affiliation, should compliment the occasion next Tuesday with their presence.

It is suggested that all the precinct committeemen throughout the county immediately consult with the leading democratic club members of his precinct in the undertaking to arrange for the attendance of every club member.

Ada's democracy will be out with the big brass band and the glad hand for everybody. It is proposed by the committee to erect a suitable platform at an appropriate point where there will be arranged seats for five thousand actual visitors who have come to hear the governor's speech.

It is proposed to request all public spirited citizens, and especially those citizens who will receive some pecuniary benefit on account of the presence of several thousand visitors on next Tuesday, to subscribe to a fund sufficient to afford proper entertainment and reception to the governor and his party. The cost of the governor's special train through this county, which is our duty to pay, the general expense of the reception, decorations, constructing platform, placing ample seating accommodations, band, badges, carriages, etc., will cost some money. Let the bus and carriage people, the livery people, the restaurants, the hotels, the hamburger peddlers and general merchants, all of whom will reap financial benefit on account of the coming of thousands of people, liberally subscribe to a fund for the proper support of the governor's reception and entertainment whilst within our portals.

Committees Are Appointed.

In pursuance to the call of Chairman W. H. Ebey, there were an assembly of democrats at the court house for the purpose of initiating steps for the proper reception of Governor Haskell on the occasion of his visit to Ada next Tuesday afternoon.

Chairman Ebey made the following committee appointments:

On Finance.

R. M. Roddie, W. H. Braley.
Committee on Arrangements.
Otis B. Weaver, Sam McClure, Robt. Wimlish.

Committee on Reception.

W. H. Ebey, Geo. Thompson, Sam McClure, Byron Norrell, E. S. Ratliff, Otis B. Weaver, R. M. Roddie, Frank Huddleston, J. W. Hays, Tom Hope, W. L. Reed, J. W. Bolen, T. D. McKeown, Robt. Wimlish, Geo. Harrison, W. C. Duncan, C. O. Barton, W. T. Cox, E. H. Lucas, M. L. Walsh, R. W. Simpson, W. H. Braley, J. F. Jackson, S. S. McDonald, R. E. Haynes, W. G. Broadfoot, John Rinard, C. W. Floyd, C. H. ELUDES MURDERERS

THRILLING ADVENTURE WITH
TENNESSEE NIGHT RIDERS.

GREAT DASH FOR LIBERTY

While Assassins Were Killing Companion Taylor Breaks Away From Guard and Swims to Safety.

Tiptonville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—Unharmed save for numerous scratches received in a thirty-hour trip through unfamiliar woods and the fatigue incident to the trip without food and the mental strain, Judge R. Z. Taylor reached here this morning after a miraculous escape from a band of masked men at Reelfoot Lake, who murdered his partner, Capt. Quinton Rankin.

Judge Taylor's escape is due to a daring dash for liberty while his captors were shooting into the body of Capt. Rankin. At a moment when he thought the guns were empty Col. Taylor broke for freedom. Dashing a few yards to the bank of a shallow inlet of Reelfoot Lake, he plunged in. A fusillade of bullets followed the fugitive, whose figure was dimly discernible.

Hundreds of Shots Fired.

Wading and swimming the aged attorney pushed forward. Near the bank opposite the firing night riders Judge Taylor concealed himself behind a log. Hundreds of shots were fired into and around the log by the night riders, but not one penetrated far enough to injure Col. Taylor.

Satisfied that their victim had met death, the night riders did not attempt to cross the slough.

Col. Taylor lay behind the log for ten minutes or more and then crept into the underbrush and concealed himself until daylight, when he plunged into the woods.

Avoiding paths which might lead to some unfriendly clearing, Col. Taylor pushed his way slowly through the dense woods, stopping only to take a few minutes' rest. When night came Col. Taylor, still afraid to approach a house, made his couch on a bed of leaves and slept until early morning.

Early today Col. Taylor received shelter at a farm house, where his wounds caused by contact with the underbrush, were dressed. After securing nourishment and dry clothing, he came to Tiptonville and related his experience with and escape from the band of men as follows:

Relates His Experiences.

"Capt. Rankin and I went to Reelfoot Lake," he said "to look after some leases of land which we had about there. We drove over from Union City Monday afternoon and secured a room at the Ward Hotel Monday night.

"Some time during the night we were aroused by some one knocking at our door, and on opening the door a mob of masked men were found standing in the hall. We were ordered to dress, and as the leader of the mob said he wanted to talk to us, we put on our clothes and accompanied the men to the banks of the lake, some distance from the hotel.

"The leader of the mob talked with us, telling us we were associating too much with Judge Harris and were taking entirely too much interest in the lake. He said that the course of Harris and the West Tennessee Land Company in prohibiting free fishing was causing the starvation of women and children, and that something had to be done.

Killing of Capt. Rankin.

"I never dreamed that the mob intended us any harm, but just then they threw a rope around Capt. Rankin's neck and swung him to a limb. He protested and said, 'Gentlemen, don't kill me,' and the reply of the mob was a volley of fifty shots.

"This was the first evidence of any intention to harm us, and when the firing began, I jumped into a bayou and made for a sunken log. Behind this I hid, and the mob fired several shots into the log. They evidently believed I was dead, for I heard one of them say, 'His is dead and let him go,' and with that they went away.

"I remained behind the log for possibly ten minutes and then hid in the underbrush until daylight. At daylight I struck out and walked until night, stopping once in a while to rest. I slept all night in the woods and this morning came to Slough Landing, where Luther Rankin, a foreman for Judge Harris, gave me shelter and telephoned of my safety to Tiptonville.

Would Not Recognize Men.

"I would not be able to recognize any of the party which killed Capt. Rankin. I am sure I never saw any of them before, and they would have been safe from detection by me even if they had not worn masks.

"I am very tired and scratched somewhat by bushes, but now have on a dry suit of clothes and feel much better. I did not even get a drop of water or a bite of food from the time I went to bed Monday night until this morning.

"I thank God for saving me in this emergency."

Sorosis.

On last Friday, Sorosis club had a pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Perkins at Capital Hill addition.

The lesson for the day, Act 1, "Taming of the Shrew," with papers and discussions, made an afternoon of unusual interest.

The club members decided to change the day of meeting from Friday to Saturday.

Delicious cakes and hot chocolate were served and while enjoying them an additional treat was given us by Mrs. Perkins reading several beautiful selections.

The next meeting will be Saturday, Oct. 31st. Hostess, Mrs. Sledge.

Court News.

The case of Jesse McDaniel vs. M. K. & T. railway was concluded this morning. McDaniel sued for damages sustained on land by the Katy; $400 was granted the plaintiff.

The case of R. S. Tobin vs. J. B. Gilles is up this afternoon.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER TO SENATOR KNOX, FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL, GIVEN OUT.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Bouncing again into the center of the political campaign, President Roosevelt tonight made public a letter in which he tears away the veil which he believes has been put before the eyes of labor. It is one of the most sensational statements which has marked the campaign.

In it Mr. Roosevelt charges that Bryan and Gompers are allies, and challenges the democratic candidate to make his position plain. The republican party would uplift labor, says Mr. Roosevelt, but the remedies proposed by the democrats are but an empty sham. He asserts that Mr. Taft's position toward labor is clearly defined and demands to know where Mr. Bryan stands.

The president holds that Mr. Gompers would have all legal restraint withdrawn from the boycott and would favor enactments legalizing secondary boycotts, blacklists, exempting unions from the consequences of such radical action, yet denying damages to firms whose business is destroyed.

Gompers' Schemes Ridiculed.
Gompers' schemes are ridiculed as policies which will do labor more harm than good. A score of questions are addressed to Mr. Bryan, which, if answered frankly, will throw a flood of light upon labor problems. One striking demand is that Mr. Bryan state whether he shares in Gompers' denunciation of the courts or repudiates it.

The letter is 4,000 words in length and addressed to Senator P. C. Knox, who when at the White House last week, reported to the president that labor was without doubt wandering from the republican standard, but suggested that it might rally to the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt.

Excuse for the Letter.
It states that it is addressed to Senator Knox because as a member of Roosevelt's cabinet he was first to institute an action by which a widow of an engineer obtained recompense for negligence resulting in his death. Its dictation shows that the administration understands the present sensitive condition of labor in general and railroad employees in particular. It will undoubtedly call for an elaborate answer from Mr. Bryan, who has been represented as waiting impatiently for another outburst from the White House which would give him an opportunity to discharge his batteries.

It will shift the focus of public attention from Mr. Taft to Washington for twenty-four hours at least although by accident or otherwise, it is to be printed on the day Mr. Taft is resting at his home in Cincinnati.

BRYAN USES STRONG WORDS.

A Corporation That Would Threaten Its Men Is Worse Than a Bribe-Giving Ward Heeler. Says the Nebraskan.

Newark, O., Oct. 22.—"I say to you that the little ward heeler who goes around and bribes a man for $5 is a moral character besides the man who attempts to use his power to threaten those who work for him and to buy them by a promise to decrease."

Thoroughly aroused by what he termed a "new menace" through the publication today of a press dispatch saying that the officials of the New York Central lines had summoned their workmen and informed them that if the democrats won the election there would be a 10 per cent reduction in wages, but that if they lost there would be an increase, William J. Bryan in before-breakfast speech to a big crowd poured a volley of criticism into the republican party for its campaign tactics.

He threw into his utterances all the vigor he could muster, and his words were greeted with loud cheers.

The second invasion of the native state of his republican opponent was begun by Mr. Bryan at this place, he having come direct from Louisville in the night. The programme for the day included stops at Mount Vernon, Manfield, Ashland, Creston, Akron, Revena, Warren, Hies, Youngstown, East Liverpool, Bellaire, Wellsville, Steubenville and Marietta, Ohio, concluding at Williamstown, W. V.

DEAN OF AMERICAN JOURNALISM TELLS OF HIS JOY AT RESULT

REPUBLICAN PARTY MENACE TO ORDERLY GOVERNMENT

In His First Political Address Since 1892 the Editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal Urges His Hearers to Support Bryan, Whose Election He Has Twice Opposed

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 21.—In his first political speech since 1892, delivered at a democratic rally in this city, Hon. Henry Watterson declared that whatever usefulness the republican party ever possessed, it has for the time outlived, and that it stands today a menace to equal taxation and economic administration, if not to orderly government and free institutions.

"I truthfully rejoice that I have lived to look upon a united democracy," said Mr. Watterson. "I was born in a democratic campaign during what proved to be a bad year for the democrats, and I attained my majority just in time to see the party go over the precipice of sectionalism, to what seemed its ruin."

"The politicians tell us that there are many issues, but I see only one. If we cannot change our rulers at will—if an organized and defiant minority inside a fortress can withstand the siege of an undisciplined and ill-equipped majority on the outside—how shall talk about trusts and tariffs, about rebates and bank deposits, about money and morals, and stocks and bonds profit us?"

"I behold now an almost exact reproduction of the evil conditions of 50 years ago. The republican party grown corrupt and arrogant, is putting forth a tremendous effort to retain the power which it has so much abused. If it succeeds it will never surrender its short of some dire cataclysm, making its exit the signal for, it may be, a civil war. To that end its policies of militarism, favoritism and class distinction, long have been tending, and preparing a new irrepressible conflict between capital and labor. I pray God that this may never come. The way to avert it is by occasional change of party, bringing home to our public officers their subordination to the people."

"If I were a republican I would vote for Bryan. If I were a republican I would let the big chief with his 'big stick' go hang. If I were a republican I would turn my back upon a candidate, no matter how personally acceptable, who represents the vicious methods of ring rule and the steam roller."

"Whatever usefulness the republican party ever possessed, it has for the time outlived. It stands today a menace to equal taxation and economic administration, if not to orderly government and free institutions."

"Its leaders know this, and, knowing it, they began early to prepare for the coming presidential battle: to fortify a field which they thought to make impregnable by the outlay of vast resources and engineering skill."

"They expected to draw us into this bloody ambush and to slaughter us like sheep in the shambles. Disappointed in their plan, what do we now see? We see all disguise of decency thrown aside; the black flag of trustism run up to the masthead; the decks crowded with corporation counsel. The occupant of the white house summons the unspeakable Hearst as his staff witness. The honest rich are invoked to make common cause with the lawless rich. All the perspectives of truth and soberness and common sense are lost amid the roar of rant and cant of self-glorifying laudation and self-accusing promises of reform, with Aldrich and Cannon, with Payne and Dillard and Sunney Jim Sherman for their examples."

"Having pitched the campaign on a false note, starting out with a man of straw on a platform of imposture, no argument is too absurd, no illustration is too rank for the men and the interests that do not mean to be dislodged if fraud and force can save them."

"Nicholas Longworth, the president's son-in-law, says he did not say it. But 5,000 listeners say he did. The notes of two stenographers say he did. What hoots it whether he did or not? No one who knows what is going on in the national capital, and has been going on for a long time, needs to be told that they are undermining the popular foundations of our democratic government and converting it into an imperial republic, with nothing wanting of monarchism and titular nobility except the nomenclature. The white house is already the palace of a king. The president is already a sovereign in everything except the name. Why should not a member of the court circle blurt it out that Taft is expecting merely

to hold the job for Roosevelt, since it was thought premature to run Roosevelt for the immediate succession?

"The campaign was and it is a family affair. If the machine which nominated Taft was so merciless toward the republican allies who dared to resist it, why should it be counted on to spare our free institutions after eight additional years of moneyed accretion and augmented power?"

"Only this can account for the personal interposition of the president, who throws duty and dignity to the winds and gets down like a matador into the bull ring, mud-stained and powder-smirched, swearing like a trooper at all who come within the sound of his voice and the reach of his inflamed fancy."

THE NEGRO VOTE.

Although the republican party has claimed to be the party of progress and prosperity for the past twenty years, has it ever occurred to you that during that entire time, with probably one exception, the republican party has not polled a majority of the votes cast by white men in any national election? Outside of Pennsylvania, Minnesota and California, is there a republican state in the union which that party would carry if the negro vote were eliminated, or cast against the republican party? Take right in our own state here. How many counties in Oklahoma could the republicans hope to carry without the negro vote? With the possible exceptions of Alfalfa and Major there is not a county in Oklahoma where a majority of the white folks vote the republican ticket. Doesn't it look like the party of "progress and prosperity" ought to be able to gather in sufficient white voters to give them a majority without falling back on the negro who is, still faithfully, and no doubt with honest intent, going blindly to the polls and voting the republican ticket because it was the party of Lincoln and Grant, and with the honest, but misguided conviction that by so doing a debt of gratitude is paid?

TAFT VS. LINCOLN.

When the republican candidate for president spoke in Oklahoma City in August of 1907, one of his chief objections to the Oklahoma constitution was that it guaranteed the right of trial by jury in contempt cases to a working man, but denied it to corporations that had violated orders of the corporation commission. "The corporation is brought before these gentlemen who constitute the corporation commission," said Mr. Taft, "and then, after due process of law, by a hearing, this corporation commission, not necessarily of lawyers, is to transmute itself suddenly into a court and impose a fine on that corporation not exceeding five hundred dollars a day during its delinquency. No jury there, so you observe we get an order enforced by a fine against the corporation, but a jury must intervene if that same order of injunction is issued against a laboring man. Gentlemen, that is not fair; it is not a square deal."

Just contrast that language with this clause from the first annual message to congress of President Abraham Lincoln. "Labor is prior to and independent of capital. Capital is only the fruit of labor. Capital could never have existed if labor had not first existed. Labor is the superior of capital and deserves much the more consideration."

REPUBLICAN EDITOR'S VIEWS.

"There seems not to be much work done yet for the national ticket by the republicans," says the Guthrie State Register, a staunch republican sheet. "Mr. Flynn is retrieving his lost ground and Mr. McGuire is working to be re-elected."

The Register has epitomized the Oklahoma situation. In one terse sentence, Editor Golobie has given a full and complete history of the work of the Oklahoma republican state organization in the present campaign. "Mr. Flynn is retrieving his lost ground and Mr. McGuire is working to be re-elected to congress." The Register might have added that Mr. Flynn, in retrieving his lost ground, is being ably seconded by Secretary House, of the republican state committee, and that Mr. McGuire's effort to be re-elected to congress is occupying the exclusive attention of state chairman, Joe Norris.

$5.25 ON EVERY $5,000

The state tax board has estimated that it will take about nine hundred thousand dollars in direct taxes to pay the expenses of state government for nineteen and a half months. To raise this they have made a levy of one and one-fourth mills. A farm that is assessed at five thousand dollars will pay $5.25 to support the state government for nineteen and one-half months. A piece of business property, a city residence, or a stock of merchandise of the same valuation will pay the same amount. Now, go you think it is going to bankrupt any farmer, merchant or business man in the state to pay $5.25 for the support of the state government for nineteen and one-half months on every five thousand dollars worth of property which he owns?

"In southern states, I am sorry to say, while they have views on every live issue, they are still bound to the democratic party irrevocably by the ghost of a lost issue—the so-called negro domination."—(William H. Taft in his speech at Oklahoma City, Aug. 2, 1907.)

HASKELL AT ADA

Pontotoc county will extend a reception to the first live governor of an American commonwealth ever visiting her borders next Tuesday afternoon. And it is to be our own governor.

Charlie Haskell, under the direction of Chairman Joe Thompson, will arrive in Ada next Tuesday afternoon, the 27th inst., and will address the people of Pontotoc county from some vantage point selected by the local county committee.

In view of the fact that the chief executive of our state will be our guest, and since all citizens of good understanding and friendly to the best government love him, for the enemies he has made on account of his political activities, all regardless of party affiliation, should compliment the occasion next Tuesday with their presence.

It is suggested that all the precinct committeemen throughout the county immediately consult with the leading democratic club members of his precinct in the undertaking to arrange for the attendance of every club member.

Ada's democracy will be out with the big brass band and the glad hand for everybody. It is proposed by the committee to erect a suitable platform at an appropriate point where there will be arranged seats for five thousand actual visitors who have come to hear the governor's speech.

It is proposed to request all public spirited citizens, and especially those citizens who will receive some pecuniary benefit on account of the presence of several thousand visitors on next Tuesday, to subscribe to a fund sufficient to afford proper entertainment and reception to the governor and his party. The cost of the governor's special train through this county, which is our duty to pay, the general expense of the reception, decorations, constructing platform, placing ample seating accommodations, band, badges, carriages, etc., will cost some money. Let the bus and carriage people, the livery people, the restaurants, the hotels, the hamburger peddlers and general merchants, all of whom will reap financial benefit an account of the coming of thousands of people, liberally subscribe to a fund for the proper support of the governor's reception and entertainment whilst within our portals.

Committee Are Appointed.

In pursuance to the call of Chairman W. H. Ebey, there were an assembly of democrats at the court house for the purpose of initiating steps for the proper reception of Governor Haskell on the occasion of his visit to Ada next Tuesday afternoon.

Chairman Ebey made the following committee appointments:

On Finance.

R. M. Roadie, W. H. Braley.
Committee on Arrangements.
Otis B. Weaver, Sam McClure, Robt. Wimbish.

Committee on Reception.

W. H. Ebey, Geo. Thompson, Sam McClure, Byron Norrell, E. S. Rath, Otis B. Weaver, R. M. Roadie, Frank Huddleston, J. W. Hays, Tom Hope, W. L. Reed, J. W. Bolen, D. McKeown, Robt. Wimbish, Geo. Harrison, W. C. Duncan, C. O. Barton, W. T. Cox, E. H. Lucas, M. L. Walsh, R. W. Simpson, W. H. Braley, J. P. Jackson, S. S. McDonald, R. E. Haynes, W. G. Broadfoot, John Rindard, C. W. Floyd, C. H. ELUDES MURDERERS

THRILLING ADVENTURE WITH
TENNESSEE NIGHT RIDERS.

GREAT DASH FOR LIBERTY

While Assassins Were Killing Companion Taylor Breaks Away From Guard and Swims to Safety.

Tiptonville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—Unharmd save for numerous scratches received in a thirty-hour trip through unfamiliar woods and the fatigue incident to the trip without food and the mental strain, Judge R. Zach Taylor reached here this morning after a miraculous escape from a band of masked men at Reelfoot Lake, who murdered his partner, Capt. Quenton Rankin.

Judge Taylor's escape is due to a daring dash for liberty while his captors were shooting into the body of Capt. Rankin. At a moment when he thought the guns were empty Col. Taylor broke for freedom. Dashing a few yards to the bank of a shallow inlet of Reelfoot Lake, he plunged in. A fusillade of bullets followed the fugitive, whose figure was dimly discernible.

Hundreds of Shots Fired.

Wading and swimming the aged attorney pushed forward. Near the bank opposite the firing night riders Judge Taylor concealed himself behind a log. Hundreds of shots were fired into and around the log by the night riders, but not one penetrated far enough to injure Col. Taylor.

Satisfied that their victim had met death, the night riders did not attempt to cross the slough.

Col. Taylor lay behind the log for ten minutes or more and then crept into the underbrush and concealed himself until daylight, when he plunged into the woods.

Avoiding paths which might lead to some unfriendly clearing, Col. Taylor pushed his way slowly through the dense woods, stopping only to take a few minutes' rest. When night came Col. Taylor, still afraid to approach a house, made his couch on a bed of leaves and slept until early morning.

Early today Col. Taylor received shelter at a farm house, where his wounds caused by contact with the underbrush, were dressed. After securing nourishment and dry clothing, he came to Tiptonville and related his experience with an escape from the band of men as follows:

Relates His Experiences.

"Capt. Rankin and I went to Reelfoot Lake," he said "to look after some leases of land which we had about there. We drove over from Union City Monday afternoon and secured a room at the Ward Hotel Monday night.

"Some time during the night we were aroused by some one knocking at our door, and on opening the door a mob of masked men were found standing in the hall. We were ordered to dress, and as the leader of the mob said he wanted to talk to us, we put on our clothes and accompanied the men to the banks of the lake, some distance from the hotel.

"The leader of the mob talked with us, telling us we were associating too much with Judge Harris and were taking entirely too much interest in the lake. He said that the course of Harris and the West Tennessee Land Company in prohibiting free fishing was causing the starvation of women and children, and that something had to be done.

Killing of Capt. Rankin.

"I never dreamed that the mob intended us any harm, but just then they threw a rope around Capt. Rankin's neck and swung him to a limb. He protested and said, 'Gentlemen, don't kill me,' and the reply of the mob was a volley of fifty shots.

"This was the first evidence of any intention to harm us, and when the firing began, I jumped into a bayou and made for a sunken log. Behind this I hid, and the mob fired several shots into the log. They evidently believed I was dead, for I heard one of them say, 'He is dead and let him go,' and with that they went away.

"I remained behind the log for possibly ten minutes and then hid in the underbrush until daylight.

"At daylight I struck out and walked until night, stopping once in a while to rest. I slept all night in the woods and this morning came to Siohgh Landing, where Luther Rankin, a foreman for Judge Harris, gave me shelter and telephoned of my safety to Tiptonville.

Would Not Recognize Men.

"I would not be able to recognize any of the party which killed Capt. Rankin. I am sure I never saw any of them before, and they would have been safe from detection by me even if they had not worn masks.

"I am very tired and scratched somewhat by bushes, but now have on a dry suit of clothes and feel much better. I did not even get a drop of water or a bite of food from the time I went to bed Monday night until this morning.

"I thank God for saving me in this emergency."

Sorosis.

On last Friday, Sorosis club had a pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Perkins in Capital Hill addition.

The lesson for the day, Act 1, "Taming of the Shrew," with papers and discussions, made an afternoon of unusual interest.

The club members decided to change the day of meeting from Friday to Saturday.

Delicious cakes and hot chocolate were served and while enjoying them an additional treat was given us by Mrs. Perkins reading several beautiful selections.

The next meeting will be Saturday, Oct. 31st. Hostess, Mrs. Sledge.

To You

We sell something "more"
Than drugs at our drug store

We've envelopes, paper, pens and ink,
And many things which we think
The Ada people can easily use,
And, yet, we do not handle "Booze."

If you with us will trade,
We'll try to observe the "golden rule;"
And we'll not be the least afraid,
Because we do not sell the "mule."

So we do invite, the people all,
Of Ada's fair and pretty land,
To buy drugs from us this fall,
And on fairness, let us fall or stand.

We're here for your—health,
As well as your—wealth.

Cough Cure

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—ever, from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppose it with a stupid "cough" medicine. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take "cough" mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's label—and none in the medicine, as it must be by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

If women only knew the cause—that backache pains come from sick kidneys, 'twould save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Ada people endorse this:

Mrs. S. M. Kyserm, living at 502 W. Main street, Ada, Okla., says: "Last summer I was suffering a great deal from a dull, heavy aching through my back and hips. I thought it was due to a cold settling on my kidneys, and was inclined to believe that it would soon disappear. The aching became more intense, however, and other symptoms of kidney trouble developed. I then decided to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, and procured a box at G. M. Ramsey's drug store. After taking a few doses the trouble began to disappear. I continued using the remedy faithfully, until my difficulties were entirely removed. I am glad to state I have had no return of kidney complaint since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER TO SENATOR KNOX, FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL, GIVEN OUT.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Bouncing again into the center of the political campaign, President Roosevelt tonight made public a letter in which he tears away the veil which he believes has been put before the eyes of labor. It is one of the most sensational statements which has marked the campaign.

In it Mr. Roosevelt charges that Bryan and Gompers are allies, and challenges the democratic candidate to make his position plain. The republican party would uplift labor, says Mr. Roosevelt, but the remedies proposed by the democrats are but an empty sham. He asserts that Mr. Taft's position toward labor is clearly defined and demands to know where Mr. Bryan stands.

The president holds that Mr. Gompers would have all legal restraint withdrawn from the boycott and would favor enactments legalizing secondary boycotts, blacklists, exempting unions from the consequences of such radical action, yet denying damages to firms whose business is destroyed.

Gompers' Schemes Ridiculed.

Gompers' schemes are ridiculed as policies which will do labor more harm than good. A score of questions are addressed to Mr. Bryan, which, if answered frankly, will throw a flood of light upon labor problems. One striking demand is that Mr. Bryan state whether he shares in Gompers' denunciation of the courts or repudiates it.

The letter is 4,000 words in length and addressed to Senator P. C. Knox, who when at the White House last week, reported to the president that labor was without doubt wandering from the republican standard, but suggested that it might rally to the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt.

Excuse for the Letter.

It states that it is addressed to Senator Knox because as a member of Roosevelt's cabinet he was first to institute an action by which a widow of an engineer obtained recompense for negligence resulting in his death. Its dictation shows that the administration understands the present sensitive condition of labor in general and railroad employees in particular. It will undoubtedly call for an elaborate answer from Mr. Bryan, who has been represented as waiting impatiently for another outburst from the White House which would give him an opportunity to discharge his batteries.

It will shift the focus of public attention from Mr. Taft to Washington for twenty-four hours at least although by accident or otherwise, it is to be printed on the day Mr. Taft is resting at his home in Cincinnati.

BRYAN USES STRONG WORDS.

A Corporation That Would Threaten Its Men Is Worse Than a Bribe-Giving Ward Heeler. Says the Nebraskan.

Newark, O., Oct. 22.—"I say to you that the little ward heeler who goes around and bribes a man for $5 is a moral character besides the man who attempts to use his power to threaten those who work for him and to buy them by a promise to decrease."

Thoroughly aroused by what he termed a "new menace" through the publication today of a press dispatch saying that the officials of the New York Central lines had summoned their workmen and informed them that if the democrats won the election there would be a 10 per cent reduction in wages, but that if they lost there would be an increase, William J. Bryan in before-breakfast speech to a big crowd poured a volley of criticism into the republican party for its campaign tactics.

He threw into his utterances all the vigor he could muster, and his words were greeted with loud cheers.

The second invasion of the native state of his republican opponent was begun by Mr. Bryan at this place, he having come direct from Louisville in the night. The programme for the day included stops at Mount Vernon, Manfield, Ashland, Creston, Akron, Ravenna, Warren, Illes, Youngstown, East Liverpool, Bellair, Wellsville, Steubenville and Marietta, Ohio, concluding at Williamston, W. V.

DEAN OF AMERICAN JOURNALISM TELLS OF HIS JOY AT RESULT

REPUBLICAN PARTY MENACE TO ORDERLY GOVERNMENT

In His First Political Address Since 1892 the Editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal Urges his Hearers to Support Bryan, Whose Election He has Twice Opposed

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 21.—In his first political speech since 1892, delivered at a democratic rally in this city, Hon. Henry Watterson declared that whatever usefulness the republican party ever possessed, it has for the time outlived, and that it stands today a menace to equal taxation and economic administration, if not to orderly government and free institutions.

"I truthfully rejoice that I have lived to look upon a united democracy," said Mr. Watterson. "I was born in a democratic campaign during what proved to be a bad year for the democrats, and I attained my majority just in time to see the party go over the precipice of sectionalism, to what seemed its ruin."

"The politicians tell us that there are many issues, but I see only one. If we cannot change our rulers at will—if an organized and defiant minority inside a fortress can withstand the siege of an undisciplined and ill-equipped majority on the outside—how shall talk about trusts and tariffs, about rebates and bank deposits, about money and morals, and stocks and bonds profit us?"

"I behold now an almost exact reproduction of the evil conditions of 50 years ago. The republican party grown corrupt and arrogant, is putting forth a tremendous effort to retain the power which it has so much abused. If it succeeds it will never surrender. It short of some dire cataclysm, making its exit the signal for, it may be, a civil war. To that end its policies of militarism, favoritism and class distinction, long have been tending, and preparing a new irrepressible conflict between capital and labor. I pray God that this may never come. The way to avert it is by occasional change of party, bringing home to our public officers their subordination to the people."

"If I were a republican I would vote for Bryan. If I were a republican I would let the big chief with his 'big stick' go hang. If I were a republican I would turn my back upon a candidate, no matter how personally acceptable, who represents the vicious methods of ring rule and the steam roller."

"Whatever usefulness the republican party ever possessed, it has for the time outlived. It stands today a menace to equal taxation and economic administration, if not to orderly government and free institutions."

"Its leaders know this, and, knowing it, they began early to prepare for the coming presidential battle; to fortify a field which they thought to make impregnable by the outlay of vast resources and engineering skill."

"They expected to draw us into this bloody ambush and to slaughter us like sheep in the shambles. Disappointed in their plan, what do we now see? We see all disguise of decency thrown aside; the black flag of trustism run up to the masthead; the decks crowded with corporation counsel. The occupant of the white house summons the unspeakable Hearst as his staff witness. The honest rich are invoked to make common cause with the lawless rich. All the perspectives of truth and soberness and common sense are lost amid the roar of rant and cant of self-glorifying laudation and self-accusing promises of reform, with Aldrich and Cannon, with Payne and Dabzell and Sunny Jim Sherman for their examples."

"Having pitched the campaign on a false note, starting out with a man of straw on a platform of imposture, no argument is too absurd, no illustration is too rank for the men and the interests that do not mean to be dislodged if fraud and force can save them."

"Nicholas Longworth, the president's son-in-law, says he did not say it. But 5,000 listeners say he did. The notes of two stenographers say he did. What boots it whether he did or not? No one who knows what is going on in the national capitol, and has been going on for a long time, needs to be told that they are undermining the popular foundations of our democratic government and converting it into an imperial republic, with nothing wanting of monarchy and titular nobility except the nomenclature. The white house is already the palace of a king. The president is already a sovereign in everything except the name. Why should not a member of the court circle blurt it out that Taft is expecting merely

to hold the job for Roosevelt, since it was thought premature to run Roosevelt for the immediate succession?

"The campaign was, and it is a family affair. If the machine which nominated Taft was so merciless toward the republican allies who dared to resist it, why should it be counted on to spare our free institutions after eight additional years of moneyed accretion and augmented power?"

"Only this can account for the personal interposition of the president, who throws duty and dignity to the winds and gets down like a matador into the bull ring, mud-stained and powder-smirched, swearing like a trooper at all who come within the sound of his voice and the reach of his inflamed fancy."

THE NEGRO VOTE.

Although the republican party has claimed to be the party of progress and prosperity for the past twenty years, has it ever occurred to you that during that entire time, with probably one exception, the republican party has not polled a majority of the votes cast by white men in any national election? Outside of Pennsylvania, Minnesota and California, is there a republican state in the union which that party would carry if the negro vote were eliminated, or cast against the republican party? Take right in our own state here. How many counties in Oklahoma could the republicans hope to carry without the negro vote? With the possible exceptions of Alfalfa and Major there is not a county in Oklahoma where a majority of the white folks vote the republican ticket. Doesn't it look like the party of "progress and prosperity" ought to be able to gather in sufficient white voters to give them a majority without falling back on the negro who is, still faithfully, and no doubt with honest intent, going blindly to the polls and voting the republican ticket because it was the party of Lincoln and Grant, and with the honest, but misguided conviction that by so doing a debt of gratitude is paid?

TAFT VS. LINCOLN.

When the republican candidate for president spoke in Oklahoma City in August of 1907, one of his chief objections to the Oklahoma constitution was that it guaranteed the right of trial by jury in contempt cases to a working man, but denied it to corporations that had violated orders of the corporation commission. "The corporation is brought before these gentlemen who constitute the corporation commission," said Mr. Taft, "and then, after due process of law, by a hearing, this corporation commission, not necessarily of lawyers, is to transmute itself suddenly into a court and impose a fine on that corporation not exceeding five hundred dollars a day during its delinquency. No jury there, so you observe we get an order enforced by a fine against the corporation, but a jury must intervene if that same order of injunction is issued against a laboring man. Gentlemen, that is not fair; it is not a square deal."

Just contrast that language with this clause from the first annual message to congress of President Abraham Lincoln: "Labor is prior to and independent of capital. Capital is only the fruit of labor. Capital could never have existed if labor had not first existed. Labor is the superior of capital and deserves much the more consideration."

REPUBLICAN EDITOR'S VIEWS

"There seems not to be much work done yet for the national ticket by the republicans," says the Guthrie State Register, a staunch republican sheet. "Mr. Flynn is retrieving his lost ground and Mr. McGuire is working to be re-elected."

The Register has epitomized the Oklahoma situation. In one terse sentence, Editor Golobie has given a full and complete history of the work of the Oklahoma republican state organization in the present campaign. "Mr. Flynn is retrieving his lost ground and Mr. McGuire is working to be re-elected to congress." The Register might have added that Mr. Flynn, in retrieving his lost ground, is being ably seconded by Secretary House, of the republican state committee, and that Mr. McGuire's effort to be re-elected to congress is occupying the exclusive attention of state chairman, Joe Norris.

$5.25 ON EVERY $50.00

The state tax board has estimated that it will take about nine hundred thousand dollars in direct taxes to pay the expenses of state government for nineteen and a half months. To raise this they have made a levy of one and one-fourth mills. A farm that is assessed at five thousand dollars will pay $5.25 to support the state government for nineteen and one-half months. A piece of business property, a city residence, or a stock of merchandise of the same valuation will pay the same amount. Now, do you think it is going to bankrupt any farmer, merchant or business man in the state to pay $5.25 for the support of the state government for nineteen and one-half months on every five thousand dollars worth of property which he owns?

"In southern states, I am sorry to say, while they have views on every live issue, they are still bound to the democratic party irrevocably by the ghost of a lost issue—the so-called negro domination."—(William H. Taft in his speech at Oklahoma City, Aug. 2, 1907.)

ORDINANCE NO. 159.

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR A SPECIAL ELECTION TO BE HELD IN THE CITY OF ADA, OKLAHOMA, TO DETERMINE THE QUESTION OF GRANTING A FRANCHISE IN SAID CITY, TO THE FARMER'S INDEPENDENT TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PONTOTOC COUNTY.
